

28 September 1949

Brigadier General William O. Brice, USMC
Marine Air Reserve Training Command
U. S. Naval Air Station
Glenview, Illinois

Dear General Brice:

Supplementing my letter of 24 June 1949 to Brigadier General Schilt, I now have confirmed reservations for my trip to your headquarters next month. I shall leave Washington Monday, October 10th, at 5:30 p.m. on B&O Train No. 5, which is scheduled to arrive in Chicago the following morning at 8:10 at Grand Central Station, and leave Chicago that afternoon on the 4:30 train to Washington.

It was very thoughtful of your Major MacGerrigle to call my office while he was in Washington last week to offer any assistance in connection with this trip; I should like to take advantage of the suggestion that transportation be arranged for me between the station and your headquarters, and I shall look for the driver either at the exit gate or at the information counter in the station.

Looking forward to being with you and your group on that day, believe me,

Sincerely,

sgd & disp ~~W.H.H.~~ 9/28 W.H.H.
